SCHEME

NATIONAL YOUTH CORPS

- SCHEME GUIDELINES

INTRODUCTION

India is on the threshold of an unique demographic dividend with young persons within the age group of 13-35 years comprising more than 40% of the total population of India. This cohort which is the most vibrant and dynamic segment of the country's population constitutes potentially its most valuable human resource. This "Youth Bulge" in the light of its impact on work participation and dependency ratios has been called a window of opportunity in terms of growth and development of our country, an opportunity which would need to be seized before the window closes. This poses its own challenges with reference to inclusive growth and the need to bridge divides. The requirements for this will transcend sectoral programmes, and would require a variety of interventions and programmes aimed at addressing the youth in a multidimensional manners. In exploring opportunities to enable the youth to make their many sided contribution to national development, it must not be forgotten that this involvement is essentially a process of completion of their education.

MISSION STATEMENT

It has been the constant endeavor of Government of India (GOI) to channelize the energies and capabilities of its considerable youth population (70% of the total population is below 35 years of age) towards nation building activities by organizing them into volunteer groups. Hon'ble President in her address to the joint session of the Parliament in June,2009 outlined the broad areas of priority of the Government of India as well as certain specific commitments. These, inter-alia, included launching a new scheme of Voluntary National Youth Corps to take up creative social action.

BACKGROUND

The Government had earlier introduced two schemes-The National Service Volunteer Scheme (NSVS) in 1977-78 and the Rashtriya Sadbhawana Yojana (RSY) in 2005, being implemented through the NYKS, wherein young volunteers were enrolled on a full time basis for participating in youth based activities.

Nehru Yuva Kendra Sangathan (NYKS) Scheme was launched in 1972 to organize rural youth and to involve them in developmental activities. The network of NYKS has grown to 501 districts and is being expanded further in 122 new districts of the country.

OBJECTIVES

The scheme of National Youth Corps (NYC) is to be implemented by amalgamating the two existing volunteer schemes into a new scheme christened 'National Youth Corps'. The Scheme would create a space enabling young men and women in the age group of 18-25 to serve up to two years in nation building activities, for which they would receive a suitable honorarium. The Scheme has the following objectives:

- To set up a group of disciplined and dedicated youth who have the inclination and spirit to engage in the task of nation building
- To facilitate the realization of inclusive growth (both social and economic)
- To act as points for dissemination of information, basic knowledge in the community
- To act as group modulators and peer group educators
- To act as role models for the younger cohort specially towards enhancement of public ethics, probity and dignity of labour.

VOLUNTEERS STRENGTH & DEPLOYMENT

A total of 20,000 volunteers shall be deployed, of which 8000 volunteers shall be deployed in the State of J&K. Out of the 8000 volunteers, 7700 volunteers shall be registered & deployed by the Government of J&K; the rest 300 volunteers shall be deployed by NYKS in J&K. The remaining 12,000 volunteers shall be deployed in the rest of the country. Deployment will only be for two years.
